

The lost child takes the fruit and gives it a bite. The serpent laughs after seeing the child finishes swallowing the fruits. The child immediately feels strange after eating it. The apple on their hand turns rotten and the surrounding changes from the garden scenery to a red background. The child turns and sees White Angel and four guardians look at him/her with concern. However, they quickly turn into a couple and bunches of other kids.

